

Assessment proposed by the supervisor of Master 's thesis: B

Assessment proposed by the reviewer of Master 's thesis: B

Course of the defence:

In the first part of the defence the examinee introduced the topic chosen for the thesis, motivation to address the issue, methodology, basic premises and mainly the outcomes and conclusions of the thesis. Following the first part, the examinee responded to questions and comments contained in the supervisor's and reviewer's assessment reports.

The examinee responded to all questions in proper and most satisfactory way. Discussed topics included: deductive/inductive approach in creation of customary international law; relations of state of necessity to the unwilling and unable doctrine; interrelationship between self-defence and the unwilling and unable doctrine. Based on the excellent performance the committee decided to raise the assessment to "A" grade.

Assessment: A

Defence date: 20.06.2019